WELCOME TO OUR NEW STUDENTS AND TEACHER

Halen Delamere, Johnno, Bella and Zahra Burford-Crewe

Mrs Elaine van der Merwe

Kia ora families,

We hope you all enjoyed the long weekend and the beautiful drizzly weather!

Well done to all of our children in Ruma Toru and Wha. You are managing the current Covid situation so well - wearing your masks without complaint and being really responsible with it. Thank you for accepting and following the guidelines. You've made the whole experience okay!

Thanks so much to our families who have offered to come along to the Waimarama Beach Education Day. Our parents are Marissa Wakelin, Annabelle Campbell, Dave and Anna Greer, Maryanne Robinson, Emily Cameron, Shane McKenzie, Tori or Margaretha Butler and Emma Oliver. I have included a plan of the day with this newsletter. It's shaping up to be lots of fun!

This Thursday I have Julian Thompson and Hamish Natusch, (Principal Tikokino), visiting to work on our Professional Development plans. Last week I was watching TV and saw Julian in a documentary called "Modern Dinosaurs". He was speaking as a geologist about the Kaikoura earthquake and the impact on the area. It's awesome that we will be working with a real scientist over the next eighteen months and I know he will bring lots of inspiration to our students and teachers.

With the Covid traffic light system currently in Red, we are unable to hold our Back to School BBQ. We do however, have some plans in place to introduce teachers to families and will be sending home a special link to families soon. Watch this space....

Piano lessons begin next Tuesday 15th February for those who have signed up. Have a great week everyone. We are looking forward to our Waimarama trip!

Have a great week.

Julie Thelwall
Principal
