ARGYLL EAST SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Live, Learn, Grow!

Term 1, Week 9
Friday 1st April 2022

Students of the Week, for displaying the School Habits and Values

Leila Phillpotts for All the Argyll East School Values – You quietly get on and do the right thing always, Leila. You persevere and gain success when you learn and use new maths strategies or write compound sentences. You show integrity and work away independently. You talk and listen to others with respect in class discussions. You take these values out into the playground too and treat others and our environment kindly. Thank you, Leila.

Maddie Butler for All the Argyll East School Values – You have really shone this week, Maddie. You are such a reliable member of the class. You think about your leadership responsibilities and ensure that you have done everything required - often thinking of things yourself rather than waiting to be told! In the classroom you show kindness and leadership, working well with everyone not just your friends. You can be proud of your attitude and achievements - Keep it up!

Archie MacKenzie for All the Argyll East School Habits and Values – You have put so much effort into your work this week Archie. You participate in all activities and you show that you are a fantastic listener because you always know what you need to do. You have been very kind to everyone and always show concern for others. Well done Archie. You are awesome!

Alex and Indie for All the Argyll East School Habits and Values – Mr Berry thinks that both of you were very kind this week by looking after others when they were hurt. You also showed great kindness and responsibility by organising to wash all the science dishes for the whole class. Thank you girls for being such great helpers and especially for helping Mr Berry in the classroom this week!

Isla Campbell for All the Argyll East School Values – It is lovely to have you in our classroom and we appreciate the way you help others and are kind. You are working hard with all your learning and are showing great perseverance. You should be proud of the stories you are writing by sounding out tricky words and are quickly learning your bonds to 5 and 10 in Maths. You have a positive attitude and with this, you will have a great year in Ruma Tahi. Isla, keep up the amazing work.

Kia ora families and friends,

I hope you are keeping well or recovering quickly as the covid virus impacts CHB. At the moment we have some absences from students but we are continuing to manage each day with as little disruption as possible. For those of you who are at home, teachers have set up home learning that your children can complete if they are well. We are looking forward to things returning to normal as soon as possible.

Last Monday we had a visit from Haritina Space Girl Milky Way and her partner Sam. We learnt loads about our Milky Way galaxy and beyond. We were treated to a visit into the space dome and everyone was blown away. One comment I heard from a younger student was "I was surprised how something so small could be so big!" It really was amazing. We look forward to another visit from Haritina to share the film that she has recently produced - "The Navigators". Our teachers were privileged to be the first audience last Monday afternoon and I know that our students will love it. Haritina has also worked in biosecurity and on her next visit, will talk about keeping NZ safe from foreign bugs and animals which will add to our bug knowledge.

Our competition winner to guess the number of cicada shells in the jar is Zoe Shorten - Well done Zoe! The original jar contained 206 cicadas and we had to do a second round as Zoe and Addison Oliver guessed the same number. Great estimating everyone!

Have a great week everyone. Hopefully we don't see too much more rain in the coming week as we are quite saturated!

Julie Thelwall, Principal
