ARGYLL EAST SCHOOL NEWSLETTER Live, Learn, Grow!

Term 2, Week 8
Thursday 23rd June 2022

Students of the Week, for displaying the School Habits and Values as follows:

Veda Haftka for All the Argyll East Values - For participating well in nature weaving with great results. You are always focused on your learning in class and kind to all your classmates. You have also shown great skills in gymnastics. Well done, Veda. Keep up the great work.

William Cook for Perseverance - You are such a dependable person in our classroom, William. You work diligently on all tasks you are given and it has been a pleasure to read some of your creative writing stories.

You show a real enjoyment of learning and being at school with your positive approach to your work. Talking with you about statistical investigations has been a real highlight this week as you learn about how to frame your questions. Keep it up William!

Claire Fauao for All the Argyll East Values - You show great integrity, Claire. You do the right thing even when no-one is watching. You are a quiet role model in our class. You talk and act nicely towards others. You are positive and a good friend. It has been lovely to watch your confidence grow this year. Keep participating and sharing your ideas.

Richie Butler for All the Argyll East Values (absent) - Richie, you are a joy to have in our classroom. You can be seen making the right choices, and you are a kind and caring friend to others. Each day your confidence is growing as you are sharing more ideas and asking questions. You are working hard in all your learning and should be proud of yourself. You are reading many numbers, counting forwards and backwards, learning all your letter sounds, and writing lots of great stories. Keep up the fantastic work, Richie!

Kia ora families and friends,

Winter is definitely here this week with temperatures down in single digits! We have been making the most of time inside this week and even had our first 'art club' running on Monday at lunchtime.

Winter illnesses are also hitting, with many students and staff unwell with winter colds. In the classrooms we continue to encourage good hand washing and regularly clean the desks and high traffic areas. Thank you for keeping your children home when they are unwell, as the winter colds are quick spreaders.

Special thanks to Malcolm Campbell and his team of helpers who braved bad weather on Sunday to move our chicken house to its new location outside the junior classrooms. We will still need more help to fence the enclosure ready for chickens later in the year - please get in touch with Malcolm if you can help.

Today the senior class were able to spend time with Constable Che simulating events that could occur on the bus. They take the big bus out onto our rural roads and then stop along the way. Constable Che gives them scenarios to act out and challenges them to think about what they would need to do in different situations. It is great hands-on practical learning that is so valuable for our bus monitors.

Our postponed trip to Hatuma Lime Quarry is going ahead today. It will be fantastic to go and spend time hearing about the geology of our local area and the children are looking forward to digging for fossils!

Mid-year reports will be sent home in the final week of the term for students in years 4-8. Students in years 0-3 receive anniversary reports throughout the year.

Zero Waste Week - Last week of term. We are looking forward to welcoming Neen back for some awesome sustainability learning.

Finally, have a great long Matariki weekend with your families and friends. Mrs Thelwall sends her warm wishes to you from isolation and looks forward to getting back asap.

Kind regards,

Lara Smith, Acting Principal
